

Interview Questions for Lynn for the topic: Faking it on Facebook

1. Why do girls try so hard to be someone they are not? Why can't they just be themselves?
2. Is this faking Facebook phenomenon seen mostly in girls who are not churched or is it seen in churched girls as well?
3. What do you say to the girl who is working so hard to make sure she is part of the popular crowd?
4. How does HRL help the girl who sees her value diminished because she doesn't have a boyfriend?
5. Statics show that 46% of high school students have sexual intercourse and each year, approximately 19 million new STD infections occur, almost half of them are among youth ages 15-24.
(<http://www.sadd.org/stats.htm#sexualactivity>)

How can a girl best guard her from becoming another statistic?

6. As parents, how should we respond when our girl appears very needy?
7. Why does the issue of mean girls seem to be a constant problem in our culture?
8. What are some of the other free added values you offer to youth leaders and parents who want to use His Revolutionary Love to teach their girl what true love is?